3. Benares Chattram, and
4. Sri Subrahmanyaswami Mutt and temple at Subrahmanya in the South Canara District.

6. The allotment for feeding out of the total Tasdik grants of the above institutions is as under:

Name of Institution	Annual Tasdik grant.	Annual allotment for feeding.

No. 2106-7/Muz. 209-26-4 dated 26th April 1927 a sum of Rs.524/- per annum is spent for providing adequate mid-day Nivedana to Sri Ranganathaswami at Seringapatam and for feeding Desantaries resoring to the temple.

10 The figures given in the Un-official Note above have been examined. The annual grant of Rs.17,050/- for the Maharaja's Chattram at Mysore has been left out in the Note, perhaps for the reason that this sum is included in the lumpsum grant of Rs.55,189/- provided for the Institutions under the Palace management under "XIII. Muzrai Institutions, 3 Endowments and Charitable Allowances". A sum of Rs.4236-3-0 has been shown as the annual tasdik for the temple and Mutt at Subrahmanya. The actual tasdik or cash grant for the temple of Sri Subrahmanyaswami is Rs.736-3- while there is a separate grant of Rs.3500/- for Barahazar Santarpane which is a separate Institution by itself.

11 It is seen that, on the whole, a total sum of Rs.34,425/- is now spent on Santarpane of which only a sum of Rs.11,057/- is spent in the Chattrams outside the State, and Rs.3500/- at Paschimavahini during Thulamasa, and Rs.20,750/- at Mysore for daily feeding and also on special occasions and Rs.118/- for issue of raw rations to Bairagis and others on the Himavadgopalaswami Hill.

12 The question of abolishing the Anna chattrams and the feeding therein was reported upon by a special Committee in 1926. As regards the feeding in the Maharaja's Chattram at Mysore, the Government have in para 13 of their order dated 13th November 1926 stated that "the proposal of the Committee that the free feeding at the Mysore Chattram may be restricted to certain seasons or to special occasions, is reserved for separate consideration". As regards the question of abolishing feeding outside the State, the special Committee appointed were of opinion that, owing to some special causes, the feeding in the outside important pilgrim centres like Subrahmanya, Tirupathi and Benares -- perhaps the three of the most important pilgrim centres in India -- may be continued. This view was accepted by Government.

13 If, however, Government are now of opinion that these may now be abolished, a special Committee may be appointed. I think the Committee may consist of a small number of persons, say about 5, 2 officials and 2 non-officials, with the Muzrai Commissioner or preferably some senior retired officer of Government as Chairman. The Committee may be asked to enquire into the question as to the desirability or otherwise of continuing the feeding in these few places (inside and outside the State) where feeding is now done. I leave the selection of the personnel of the Committee entirely to Government.
